Why Team Building? Cohesion, conflict resolution, team interaction, problem solving, task completion, time constraints, working to deadlines, leadership, fellowship. We rely on all these abilities every working day of our lives, yet how do we train for them? At Ride Leisure, we focus each activity on one or more of these skills and can design a session on specific requirements. Team building really works and any organisation will benefit from an engaged workforce who can work effectively as a team.

A typical Team Building session will be from 8 to 80 people, will last 3-4 hours depending on your groups size and is made up of at least 4 activities. Pick and choose from our Team Building games below.
